MOO STEPS UP KUANG-CHOU PROPAGANDA ACTIVITIES

POLITICAL SECTION TRAINS NEW WORKERS -- Ta Kung Pao, 28 Oct 49

The political section of the Military Control Commission is enrolling 400 young men and women for training as political workers. They will be trained in political, cultural arts, propaganda and educational activities.

Preparations have been made to establish a People's Revolutionary University in Kuang-chou to enroll 5,000 students. It will prepare persons for service to the people along political, economic and cultural lines. Those who are admitted will be furnished with board, lodging, and clothing. The course is now fixed at 6 months.

The People's Radio Station in Kuang-chou has called for new liberation songs to be contributed by cultural workers and propaganda groups, for broadcasting during the music periods. By 27 October, 17 numbers had been submitted. These will be recorded and put on the air, along with Soviet songs.

On 23 October, about 100 students from Ling-nam University went out in groups of three for Sunday of propaganda work. They went through the western part of the city explaining to the people the new trade and industry policies, the meaning of the Eight Rules, and of the democratic dictatorship.

A similar number went out that day from the People's University. They covered a wide area and scattering leaflets which were eagerly snatched and read.

STUDENTS ENTHUSIASTIC IN KUANG-CHOU -- Ta Kung Pao, 29 Oct 49

Soon after Kuang-chou was taken over, a mass meeting of students was called by the culture and education section of the Military Control Commission. It was set for 1500 on 25 October. By 1400, bands of students from every institution had arrived and packed the Sun Yat-sen Memorial Hall to capacity, while thousands more gathered outside. A din of applause greeted the portraits of Mao and Chu as they were brought in, and the entire crowd sprang to their feet and shouted "Hail!"
